

Reviews and Testimonials

Paula made my tattoo experience a very enjoyable one. I had a lovely cup of tea on arrival and was made to feel extremely calm about the whole procedure. She is very welcoming and explains everything as she goes along. Paula always checks that you are ok with the pace of the tattoo and if you feel like you need to have a rest then she will stop. Paula is accommodating to all your needs, including any appointment rearrangements required. The studio itself is clean and comfortable. We even had the TV on!!

I would happily go back for further work to be done. and although this was not my first tattoo experience, I would recommend Paula to anyone who is thinking about getting their first one.

I've been to InkLined to Colour tattoo studio a few times for tattoos... I'm really happy with the finished results, I especially like the easy parking and one-to-one consultation. It's nice and relaxing, not rushed or pressured so you don't feel like you are on a production-line. I would recommend InkLined to Colour to anybody.

Paula puts you at ease straight away, in her warm and welcoming studio. I love the end result of my tattoo - she took my drawing which a friend did for me and tattooed it perfectly!! Looking forward to going back again!!

A relaxed atmosphere, no heavy metal music belting out at me. Watched the telly whilst Paula did my tattoo.

I'm very pleased with the tattoo that Paula has done, she makes you feel relaxed and at ease whilst there. She is very helpful with help on your design and provides a great info leaflet after the work is done. I have many tattoos and will be going back for more in the future. Once again great work and a very lovely tattooist.

Seeing Paula's advertisement for her Studio was the beginning of a great adventure for an average middle aged couple. We had played with the idea of having a tattoo but had never had the courage to cross the threshold of High Street tattoo shops. We originally telephoned Paula who listened to our request and gave us the confidence to make an appointment.

At our first visit it was clear to us that Paula was very professional and a great artist with loads of good ideas. Paula explained the whole process and after care and made us feel very comfortable with the whole process. The quiet surroundings of her studio make you feel relaxed and Paula was always prepared to give us as much time as we needed, as she always made sure appointments did not overlap and there was never any waiting around.

Paula is an amazing person and we have no hesitation in advising any "tattoo virgin" to go for it, as you will be truly pleased with the results. This is borne out by the fact that having intended to go for one small session we have returned another six times, and who knows what the future may hold! Be careful it is addictive!

I am an older person and have taken great care to choose the 'right' artist to do my tattoos and I am pleased I found Paula. She has created seven tattoos for me now and I will be back again, if she'll have me. I am very pleased with all of them.

I appreciate the care and advice she has given and effort she has made to make sure that each tattoo is exactly what was wanted. On each visit, she has researched and searched patiently to make sure she found the best image for me. Time is never an issue and the results speak for themselves.

I was very careful to find a Tattoo Artist who, apart from having the necessary artistic skills which she has in abundance, also made hygiene a top priority. I have been very impressed with the care Paula has taken and the 'no expense or effort spared' policy she has. It is very reassuring that she does not take any short-cuts at all, which gives me total confidence.

It is good to visit her bright, immaculate and comfortable studio in it's charming location. I have thoroughly enjoyed every occasion.

I wish Paula continuing and well deserved success. I'm looking forward to my next visit and I have no hesitation in recommending her to my friends.

I heard about InkLined to Colour through a friend so thought I would take a wander up and check it out as I've been wanting a tattoo on my foot for a while now

Paula met me on arrival and was very friendly, made me feel right at home. She showed me her office and her tattoo room which was warm and extremely clean. We then sat down and talked about designs, I had a few ideas already but with Paula's help came up with an amazing sugar skull design.

Once it had been drawn up Paula booked me in straight away. During the sitting she put me at ease all the way through and did an amazing job, I couldn't have asked for anymore. The piece itself is well done and I can't wait to get it finished.
